1/ A little boy, waits by his wagon for the one he spent his whole, fifty cents allowance on.
He holds a ring, made of plastic colored glue and says this ring, will show you how much I love you.

Ref: *With this ring, our love will last forever
It will prove, our love can never die
Even when, we've both gone up to heaven
This ring, will stand for you and I*

2/ A boy and a girl, just in their senior year holding hands, and wanting to be near Both are firm in their thoughts on love and life
With this ring, some day you will become my wife

3/ A young man stands by an altar, wearing a proud smile a young girl in white satin, walks slowly up the isle He takes her and his, and proudly he does say honey with this ring, you are my oh my today

4/ An old man kneels by a casket, his eyes are filled with tears
He looks at the woman, he's lived with all those years
He slips a ring on her finger and softly he does say Honey with this ring the angels carry you away
