Working, driving, ever striving
Do what's needed to survive
In a hurry in a flurry
Barely know that I'm alive

The world is turning and I'm yearning
For a moment of reprieve
In this fast pace and so cold place
Always think I must achieve

Chorus: Stop the madness and the sadness
Spend some time with family, friends
Contemplation relaxation
Let good music never end

People busy in a tizzy
On their cell phones night and day
When they're walking always talking
Haven't got a thing to say

Children playing parents saying
Never heard above the drone
Electronic Plague bubonic
Play addictive games alone
